JURORS: Donna Cosentino & Karen Hymer

THEME: The Mindful Landscape

Much is written about mindfulness in the process of making a photograph. What does this mean exactly? We believe it is about the slowing down and connectedness one acquires as one makes an image in the field.

We agree there is a mindfulness with street photography as well but it is a different kind of awareness than the one found within the pace of landscape photography.

We are looking for those moments (or even hours) filled with the 'conscious present'. These are almost always solitary times when the artist finds the self imbued with a sense of connectedness to nature. This cannot be forced. You cannot bend nature to your will. It is rather a loss of self in experiencing the scene before you.

We are looking for those photographs from you which were made with this deep sense of union between photographer and place.

Deadline: November 30, 2024

5% of artist entry fees goes to the charity of the jurors. Donna Cosentino and Karen Hymer have chosen Mono Lake Committee (they literally have saved the lake).

www.monolake.org Another 5% will go to the first place winner's choice of charity.

All images submitted to L.A. and N.Y. Photo Curator are eligible to be considered for the Top 40 images of the year chosen by the years jurors. One photographer of the year will be chosen from those picks by Laurie Freitag.

-----ALL entrants work is shown on their own page with their artist statement, website info & bio. Early entries may be featured on L.A. Photo Curator's Facebook and Instagram pages.

First Place winner receives Q&A with the jurors. Jurors review first place winner. The Q&A is all done online and the results are included in a piece about the artist in L.A. Photo Curator's themed exhibition. One or more past jurors may contribute reviews as well. 5% of artist fees goes to the first place winner's charity. The first place image shows on our splash page for a month.
